

---

The proposed research is theoretical in nature and hence does not require a detailed data management plan. The PI will post her publications on arXiv whenever copyright permits, and will link to all publications on her website. If any materials are not included in publications, e.g., if code is generated to verify theoretical results with simulations, the PI will make it available on her website.